

A FAR JOURNEY.

J. C. GREEN GOES TO RIO DE JANEIRO AS EXPORT MANAGER FOR GOODYEAR RUBBER CO.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Green who built a home at 826 Green street a few years ago where they lived until recently are now a long, long way from Glendale. Mr. Green has been for some time in the employ of the Goodyear Tire Rubber Company of Los Angeles and a few months ago was made export manager with headquarters at Rio de Janeiro, Brazil. They disposed of their residence property and with their little daughter Marjorie went east about the middle of May and after visiting friends for several weeks sailed from New York June 21st. Their sister-in-law, Mrs. Isadore Tompkins, of 818 Green street, has just received a letter mailed at the first port at which they stopped (Santa Lucia in the West Indies), in which they said they would be there over night while their ship was coaled by women, for the women there do all the hard work. Each coal porter carries three baskets which contain 115 pounds each. Mrs. Tompkins figures that one must be carried on the head and a basket in each hand. They carry it up an inclined way for a distance of about a block and for the work receive 4c each. The women range in age from 15 to 50 years. In closing his letter, Mr. Green remarked: "Just think of these women doing this work, supporting a husband and bearing children besides."

The climate of the district to which they are going is said to be similar to that of California. It will be the winter season when they reach there. Mrs. Tompkins does not expect to hear from them again very soon as it takes a letter a month or six weeks to make the journey.

The Greens plan to stay in Brazil two years and possibly longer. Their old home here is now occupied by the Metcalf-Shaw family of Toronto, Ontario, Canada, who are spending a few months in Glendale.

BOSSERMANS TO GO EAST

LeRoy Bosserman of 614 South Central avenue will leave in about ten days for his annual business trip to Indiana and will be accompanied by his wife and family who have already engaged a house at Michigan City where they will spend the summer and where he can be with them part of the time. It is the old home town of Mrs. Bosserman where she has many friends and is a place endeared to her by pleasant associations of her childhood. Michigan City is noted for its wonderful beach and sand dunes on Lake Michigan, a beach which she declares is unrivaled in the whole United States, and one which she is glad to have her son enjoy as she did when a child.

DICKERSONS LEAVE TONIGHT

Robt. R. Dickerson and family who have been living at 1270 Boynton, leave tonight for Long Beach, where they will locate for the present at 520 Temple street. Mr. Dickerson will leave his wife and children there till fall, but he will go down to El Centro about August 1st to take up his work as assistant to the County Superintendent of Schools.

GOING TO CHINA

GLENDALE CITIZEN PREPARING TO ACCEPT BUSINESS POSITION IN CELESTIAL LAND

Charles M. Cottrell of 706 East Lomita avenue is closing up his business affairs as traveling salesman for a San Francisco Auto Accessory Supply Company so he can sail August 2d for Shanghai, China, where he has a position with the Office Appliance Co., handling office supplies for various American and English firms. He has a brother in Shanghai now as a teacher, he having been there 12 years. Mr. Cottrell's mother, who has been living with him in Glendale, spent several years in China with this other son. Charles M. hopes to take his wife and their three children, and his mother, with him when he goes, but so far has been able to secure reservation for himself alone. But he hopes that he may yet be fortunate to secure passage for the whole family. If not, the others will have to go on a later boat.

Mr. Cottrell thinks China offers the best business openings of any country in the world just now. All Germans and Austrians have been deported and as they, particularly the former class, controlled a large part of the business in many large cities, their expulsion leaves splendid openings for enterprising businessmen of other nationalities.

BEAUTIFUL GLENDALE

The Evening News feels proud of Glendale as being a beautiful city, populated by an intelligent people capable of governing their own local affairs. Glendale merchants are full of vim and integrity and as a whole are doing their bit to make Glendale a more prosperous and progressive city.

HONOR HOUSE GUESTS

DR. AND MRS. COLIN CABLE ENTERTAIN FOR MRS. E. R. CALLENDER AND DAUGHTER

Another of the delightful parties for which Dr. and Mrs. Colin Cable of 505 South Columbus avenue are famous was given by them Tuesday evening in honor of their house guests, Mrs. Edward R. Callender and her daughter Miss Louise Callender, of Kansas City.

It was a card party and tables were provided for both Bridge and Five Hundred. Also it was a mixed company of old and young, but an exceedingly congenial one, most of the guests being very well acquainted with each other and with their entertainers.

Mrs. Cable's home was beautifully decorated with flowers from her own garden and those of her neighbors who, when they knew she was entertaining brought roses, asters, gladioli, hydrangea, and other blooms which would fit into a pink color scheme.

Preliminary to the play there was a brief program opened by Miss Callender with a beautifully executed fancy dance, "The Fire Fly," to a victrola accompaniment, which was very greatly enjoyed. Mrs. Grover Cable of Long Beach, sister-in-law of the

LIEUT. ROCKHOLD RETURNS

Mrs. J. E. Rockhold, who has been ordered to Tujunga for the summer because it is believed she needs the higher altitude has been made very happy by news from her husband, Lieutenant Rockhold, that he arrived in Hoboken about a week ago, that he was ordered to report to Washington, and would then start for home. He is expected to reach Los Angeles Thursday and will go direct to Tujunga to join his wife.

As a member of the engineering corps of the A. E. F. Lieutenant Rockhold saw strenuous service, not only during the war but after the armistice was signed. He had serious eye trouble and was in the hospital for a number of weeks but under expert care recovered and it will be a great joy to him to again join his wife and his son, Howard Rockhold, who returned and was discharged from service several months ago.

INDUSTRIAL MEETING

About a dozen of the members of the Glendale Industrial Association met at the office of C. W. Kent & Son, Tuesday evening, to consider the continuation of options held on acreage on the San Fernando Road near Colorado street. On account of the railroads being in the hands of the United States government it is impossible to get any active co-operation on the part of the Southern Pacific Railroad in the way of promising to extend spurs, etc., for the convenience of proposed factories. A motion prevailed that the options on the acreage be continued until such a time that the railroad is in a position to co-operate with this local association. For particulars concerning the Glendale Industrial Association you are advised to confer with Roy L. Kent, temporary chairman, and C. D. Lusby, temporary secretary.

A. F. WEBSTER BUYS BUSINESS

A. F. Webster has bought the Park Avenue Grocery of A. V. Marcellus, who bought out Frank Motsch a few months ago. Mr. Marcellus came from South Dakota intending to stay but a short time, locating in Hollywood. Glendale attracted him, however, and he decided to go into business here, though he had considerable interests yet in South Dakota. These finally requiring his presence he decided to sell and Mr. Webster was the purchaser. The latter has been in Glendale several months, coming from Vermont, Ill. Though he has had many business opportunities elsewhere in Southern California, Glendale was so attractive to him and his family that he held off hoping to secure a location here. He has succeeded and we are glad to greet him as a permanent citizen and representative business man.

WASHINGTON, July 16.—The United States Shipping Board received a report late last night that the steamer Allison was filling with water and sinking about fifteen miles off Fenwick Light, Long Island. A coast guard cutter and steamer have gone to the rescue.

(Later) A radio received this afternoon stated the steamer Lakeview now has the Allison in tow and is heading for the Delaware breakwater. It stated that the Allison is in a sinking condition.

ARMISTICE IN PEACE TREATY FIGHT

PRESIDENT WILSON TO HAVE CONFERENCE WITH FIFTEEN REPUBLICAN LEADERS

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, July 16.—While an armistice has been declared in the league of nations fight which will permit both sides to realign their tactics, it was stated at the White House that the president is preparing to invite fifteen of the leading Republicans to meet him and discuss the peace treaty and the league of nations covenant.

It is believed that the president will take these Republicans into his confidence regarding the Paris conference. It was also learned that the president has invited Senator Chamberlain of Oregon to call upon him. Significance is attached to this move as it is understood that there has been ill-feeling between the president and Chamberlain since the Senator denounced the government's military policy during the war.

ALLIES RECOGNIZE BOLSHEVIK MENACE

PREDICTION THAT THEY WILL SOON MAKE THE FINAL STRUGGLE AGAINST HUNGARIAN RADICALS

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

PARIS, July 16.—It was predicted here today that the allies will soon start the final armed struggle against the Hungarian radicals with Vienna as the objective. It is understood that the allies have definitely concluded that Bolshevism menaces all central and eastern Europe and unless Vienna is made the capital of a stable government, the peace of Europe will be menaced for many years. The Bolsheviks apparently realize the value of Vienna and are reported as being ready to stake everything on a final effort to establish the Bolshevik government there.

SOUTHERN PACIFIC PROSPERITY

REPORT OF DIRECTORATE FOR YEAR ENDING LAST DECEMBER MAKES GOOD SHOWING

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

NEW YORK, July 16.—The Southern Pacific directorate today announced that the net income of the Southern Pacific railway company for the year ending last December was $11,313,323. Its subsidiary companies have prospered except the California and Oregon company which lost $164,000. The net income from the Phoenix-Eastern line was $66.84, from the Tucson-Nogales line $6,411 and from the Southern Pacific Coast line $280,000.

ALARMING SHORTAGE OF DRESS GOODS

DRESSMAKERS IN CONVENTION THREATEN TO MAKE GOWNS SHORTER AND NARROWER

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

NEW YORK, July 16.—At the annual convention of dress fabric buyers it was declared there was an alarming shortage of dress goods. They threaten to make dresses shorter and narrower in order to conserve materials. It is said the shortage will continue for five years. Reasons given for the shortage are the small production of silk, the fact that cotton growers have been planting other crops, the high price of wool, and the uncertainty of the labor market.

WOMAN'S CHURCH DAY AT FIRST PRESBYTERIAN

July 15th was the regular monthly Church Day of the Woman's Society of the Glendale Presbyterian Church. At 11 o'clock the Work Department met for sewing and social hour. Lunch was served by the committee at noon. The devotional followed, led by Mrs. M. P. Harrison. The Mission Department was called to order by the president, Mrs. Hesse. An excellent paper on Americanizing and Christianizing foreigners was prepared by Mrs. Preston. The address of the afternoon was given by Mrs. J. M. Saunders, a missionary from New Zealand. She treated her subject, "Heathenism," under three heads—"What is Heathenism?" "What Has God's Grace Done for Heathenism?" "What Can I Do for Heathenism?" Mrs. Saunders is a gifted speaker and those who missed this wonderful talk should regret it.

At the evening service, at 7:45, Dr. Saunders made an eloquent address to nearly a hundred listeners on the subject, "The Cross of Foreign Missions."

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED

Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm McLaren of 203 North Jackson street announce the engagement of their only daughter, Irene, to Fred Flack of Eagle Rock. The wedding will take place in September. Mr. Flack is employed by the Standard Oil Company in the main office in Los Angeles, and the young couple will probably live in that city.

DEATH OF D. J. GRAHAM

Funeral services over the body of D. J. Graham will be held at his late home, Wilson avenue and Verdugo Road, Thursday afternoon at three o'clock, and interment will be at Forest Lawn Memorial Park. Deceased passed away Monday at 3 p. m. and leaves a widow and a daughter, Mrs. Lillian Rogers, who was at the bedside of her father when he died. He had been a resident of this city for many years.

MAJOR BLAKE RETURNS

RETIRED OFFICER TENDERS SERVICE AT OUTBREAK OF WAR; WINS HIGH RANK

A fine, soldierly looking man in the uniform of an officer of the United States Army who was seen on the streets of Glendale Tuesday in the company of L. T. Rowley, attracted much attention. He was Major Blake, of Tujunga, who served in the U. S. Army for thirty years and after receiving his honorable discharge came to Tujunga, where he built a nice home and identified himself with the interests of the community in a public-spirited way. On the outbreak of the war he tendered his services to the army, was accepted, and given the rank of Captain. He was at once sent to American Lake to organize the Quartermaster's Department at Camp Lewis and when that work was completed was sent abroad. Three gold stripes on his sleeve testify to eighteen months' service there where he was advanced to the rank of Major. During his absence from this country, his wife, who was in ill health when he left, passed away. He is still in army service and is at present stationed in Los Angeles. He is seeking discharge and his friends hope that he will return to Tujunga where he has been much missed. He is thoroughly western in his tastes and affiliations and in any event can be depended upon to live somewhere west of the Rockies.

WILL NOT TAKE IT BACK

One of the Evening News readers took exception to a recent statement in these columns that no man who really wanted work and was able to perform it need lack for a job. But we see no reason to retract or modify the assertion. With farmers of the Middle West offering as high as $15 a day for harvest help, orchardists fairly begging for aid to save their fruit and the difficulty of securing competent clerks, it would seem that no willing, able worker need be idle. Thousands of foreign born people are returning to the home lands now that the war is over and that will increase the demand for laborers. Eight thousand Italians left Tuesday in three steamships to again make their homes in Italy. It is estimated that 2,000,000 foreigners will repatriate themselves within a year. Surely in view of all this the American laborer need not fear non-employment.

TO DIRECT BIG FILM SERIAL

The Astra Film Studio in the northeastern part of Glendale, on Verdugo Road, is much in the limelight these days. Fatty Arbuckle films many of his scenes out there and other stars take their turn. Monday evening James W. Horne, the noted director, signed a contract at the Astra Studio, to direct the biggest film serial ever put on. Horne, by the way, is the husband of Cleo Ridgely, well-known film star, who lived at 1552 Vine street, as it was then numbered, several years ago.

GLEN WOOD IMPROVING

W. F. Wood of 1472 East Wilson avenue informs us that his son Glen, whom he and Mrs. Wood brought home from a Phoenix, Arizona, sanitarium a few weeks ago, is improving slowly. He is developing a good appetite and is gaining in weight.

CAMP NO. 22

SONS OF VETERANS INSTALL COMMANDER AND RESUME REGULAR MEETINGS

Meetings of the N. P. Banks Camp No. 22, Sons of Veterans, were resumed Tuesday evening when Division Commander Hyden and about seven members of Camp Rosecrans of Los Angeles came out and performed the work of initiating Mr. Rapp of Burbank who was received into membership. They also installed A. J. Van Wie as Commander of the local camp, and several applications for membership were received and voted upon.

At the close of the session the camp was pleasantly surprised by the arrival of refreshments of cake and fruit punch furnished by Mesdames Jennie Phillips, Louise Purnell, Wilona Crawford and Gertrude Griffin on behalf of the Woman's Relief Corps.

Commander Van Wie announced that his appointments would be made later, and that meetings would be held regularly hereafter on the first and third Tuesday evenings of each month.

GLENDALE, CALIFORNIA, WEDNESDAY, JULY 16, 1919

A SERIOUS SITUATION

Senator James D. Phelan has issued the following statement: "I was surprised and alarmed to read the official statement that one-third of the births, outside of incorporated cities and towns in Los Angeles County, California, were Japanese. That means that one-third of the rural population are substantially Japanese, and as the rural population is the backbone of every country, the gravity of the situation must appeal to all thinking men and women. The State Board of Health reports that the Japanese births in the last ten years have increased three thousand per cent, and the white births have decreased about nine per cent.

"I do not think we require any further confirmation of the silent invasion of California directed from Japan, because Japan controls her nationals wherever they go. California is now just as Hawaii has been for some time past, a tributary colony to Japan. The rats are in the granary. They have gotten in under the door and they are breeding with alarming rapidity. We must get rid of them or lose the granary. When I say the rats have gotten in under the door, I refer to the stipulation that no laborers would be given passports from Japan, but women are given passports on the theory that they are the wives of the men who are already here. They, of course, cannot be bona fide wives of the men whom they have never seen, as we understand marriage. These women work in the fields as laborers and so circumvent the agreement and then they give birth to children and thus defeat the purpose of the agreement by increasing the horde of non-assimilable aliens who are crowding the white men and women off the lands. If this is not checked now, it means the end of the white race in California, the subdivision of American institutions and the end of our Western civilization. The fight is on. On which side do you stand?

ANOTHER IRREDESCENT DREAM OF JIM HAM

Ex-Senator Jim Ham Lewis sees a new alignment in politics for the 1920 campaign. He predicts Wilson will be a candidate for President on a Pro-League of Nations platform with a Pro-League Republican as a running mate, and an opposition ticket headed by a Republican and a Democrat for President and Vice-President, who are opposed to the League. He says that Wilson would not be running as a third-term Democrat, but as a first-term Pro-Leaguer. It is possible that such a wild pipe dream might materialize if the campaign were at hand this year, but it is certain that all this agitation over the peace treaty and the League of Nations will have been ended months before the summer of 1920 brings the campaign for the presidency to the fore.

DAY OF RECKONING IS HERE FOR FOE

With the signing of the peace treaty at Versailles certain scenes of the last five years inevitably return to mind.

We recall the application of frightfulness as a weapon in Belgium. The United States minister to Brussels, Brand Whitlock, tells in his recently published memoirs what happened at Dinant. The Germans had taken 616 of the residents of the town as hostages. The French were opposing the crossing of the river. The Germans threatened to shoot the hostages unless the French stopped firing. When the firing did not cease this is what happened, in Mr. Whitlock's words:

The prisoners were massed together, nearly ninety of them, old men and young, women, girls, and boys, little children, and babies in their mothers' arms. A platoon was called up, the colonel in command gave the word to fire, and the gray soldiers in cold blood shot down those ninety persons as they stood huddled together. Among them were twelve children under the age of 6 years, whose mothers, as they stood up to face their pitiless murderers, held them in their arms.

We recall the deporting into slavery of the young women of Lille—a crime so atrocious that the world shrunk in horror from it and the United States was moved to make official protest.

We recall the sinking of the Lusitania, the shelling of the boats, the deliberate murder of the crew of the torpedoed Black Prince.

We recall the methodical looting of the factories of Belgium and France and the destruction of coal mines for the purpose of putting Belgium and France out of the running as commercial competitors of Germany.

We recall the insolent notification to the United States that Germany would permit one American ship a week, painted in fantastic colors, to sail the ocean.

We recall above all the cruelty and arrogance and lust for dominion that brought all this woe upon the world. We recall that when England was working for a conference to settle the Serbian troubles, when Russia had asked Austria for negotiations, Germany flung aside all peaceful means of settlement and made herself responsible for the slaughter of millions of the best youth of the world, for the untold misery heaped upon non-combatants, on fathers and mothers, on wives and sweethearts.

There is no punishment possible commensurate with the magnitude of Germany's offense against civilization. The treaty, severe as it is, merely goes a little way toward making the offending nation bear a share of the burden it has laid upon mankind.—Kansas City Star.

VIGILANCE NECESSARY TO SUBDUCE FLU GERM

The influenza is happily waning. But it is just as well not to rejoice unduly. It may come back, with devastating effect.

One of the most discouraging things about this disease is that, unlike most epidemics, it does not confer immunity. Its victims may catch it again within a few months. For all anybody knows, they may get it over and over, until it "gets" them. And like individuals, whole communities and nations are subject to recurrent attacks.

It is estimated that this baffling plague took 400,000 American lives last fall and winter, and as a result of death and disability cost the nation more than $2,000,000. We do not want that to happen again next winter or any subsequent winter.

There is much force, then, in the appeal made by Secretary Lane for a congressional appropriation to pay the cost of finding out exactly what this enemy is, and conquering it.

"If there is an insect that can lie dormant seventeen years," he argues, "it is equally possible that there is a bacillus that may lie dormant through a certain period, becoming active at stated intervals and producing the periodic waves that mark certain diseases. The bacillus of influenza should be isolated and identified, so that we may be able to cope with it in future appearances.

"Once the bacillus is found, medical men can evolve some way to kill it or make it drunk so it won't work. That has been found to be the most effective method of rendering many germs inactive."

It is necessary to subdue the flu germs, and by setting to work the ablest medical scientists in the country, with the best facilities obtainable, it can probably be accomplished for a mere fraction of one per cent of what this enemy has cost us during the past year.—Santa Ana Register.

SYMPATHETIC APPEAL NO LONGER NECESSARY

Now that prohibition has come, and the men who formerly tended bar have found other employment, or are seeking other vocations, it has become clearer than ever that there was no ground for the "sympathetic" appeal that the saloon must be spared, in order that a large number of heads of families should not be thrown out of work. In those tearful pleas heads of families were invariably affected, though one might have supposed that an occasional liquor vender would have been a bachelor. But the worst blow to the doleful conjectures as to the barkeeper's ability to exist, once his accustomed occupation is gone, is the ease with which the liquor sellers have found other employment, employment nearly always more agreeable than selling beer and whiskey, and often more remunerative. It is an interesting fact that many of the men who have passed a considerable time in the liquor business have expressed their relief that the law has at last forced them to take the step they have long wished, more or less half-heartedly, to take.—Christian Science Monitor.

"AN IGNORANT IDEALIST"

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
MOUNT CLEMENS, Mich., July 16.—Attorneys for the Chicago Tribune in the million dollar libel suit declared here today that they intended to prove that Henry Ford is an "ignorant idealist." Ford intimated that he was willing to stipulate the point.

The attorneys started to prove their point by asking Ford: "Did you ever hear of Benedict Arnold?" Ford answered: "Yes," and said Arnold was "a writer." Ford admitted that he had never heard of John Andre.

Personals

Miss Jessie Booth of Los Angeles will be the guest of Mrs. Fred Myton Thursday evening.

Miss L. Lillian Ellias of 104 West Cypress avenue has gone to Palo Alto to spend a few weeks with friends.

Charles Gysin, the sign-painter, has rented an apartment in Glendale and will move his family out at once.

Archie Parker and wife of the Quality Grocery returned home Tuesday from a week's outing on Catalina Island.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Parker of North Orange street expect to leave their home in August to spend a month at Santa Monica.

Mrs. Charles Vaughn, of Emporia, Kansas, and son, Charles, arrived yesterday afternoon for a short visit with Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Kulp of 1211 East Wilson avenue.

S. W. Christy has a fine new delivery truck with fixed top and side curtains for security in wet weather. It is quite an addition to the equipment of his grocery store.

Little Jack Olympius, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Olympius, of 421 Arden avenue, who recently underwent an operation for the removal of adenoids, is now quite well again.

Miss Gladys Flora Bronson has returned from Chicago, Ill., after a visit with numerous relatives for nine months. She is now at her home, 104 West Cypress avenue.

Interurban car No. 1 of the Glendale & Montrose line, damaged a few weeks ago in a collision with James Conner's big truck, has been repaired and is again on the Eagle Rock run.

Work has begun on the six-room house which Albert Cornwell is building on Central avenue near Lexington Drive. He does not expect to get into it for two or three months.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur C. Brown and son, Meredith, motored to Whittier Sunday and visited Mrs. Johnson, the aged aunt of Mr. Brown, who suffered a stroke of paralysis not long ago.

Mrs. Bert Ward of 451 Myrtle, who has been visiting a sister in Chicago and Mr. Ward's parents in Black Hills, South Dakota, for several months, returns to her Glendale home this week.

C. A. Redmond of 331 West Harvard has returned from conveying a company of delegates as far as Salt Lake on their journey east. Mr. Redmond is District Passenger Agent of the Salt Lake Railroad.

Mrs. Hooper, of 322 West Harvard, who is employed in the office of the City Manager, visited Hollywood Tuesday evening to attend a military wedding at which a bachelor relative became a benedict. It was quite a big social event.

W. S. Hendricks, the dry goods man, is free at last and will take a few vacation trips in the next few weeks to beach and mountains. He says he is already tired of resting and a few months more will probably find him back in business again.

U. H. Emick of 229 North Maryland is carrying his left side in a sling these days on account of a smashed rib which resulted from a fall off of a 12-foot ladder while he was picking figs in the yard a few days ago.

Dr. D. R. Dungan, of 3-9 East Lomita avenue has been confined at home for about two weeks by illness. As he is past 82 years of age and partially helpless as the result of a broken hip, received on shipboard as he was bound for Honolulu three years ago, his recovery is naturally slow.

Mrs. Miller of Thornycroft reports that the demands upon the Sanitarium are such that she has been obliged to turn many applicants away. A new but temporary office has been built to serve until the Swiss chalet planned for the corner of Adams and Windsor Road is constructed.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Neel of 302 N. Louise street left Tuesday for Mammoth Lake, where they camp every year. They will be gone about two months. Their son, Archy Neel, who is recuperating from an operation which he underwent at the Burbank Hospital, and their daughter, Mary Jane, accompanied them.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen of East Wilson avenue left Tuesday morning on a combined pleasure and business trip in a shiny new automobile which they expect will carry them into many of the farming districts of Northern and Central California. Mr. Allen is a livestock buyer and has been commissioned by the firm with which he is associated to buy stock for them. Mrs. Allen concluded it would be a good chance for them to have a little camping outing along the way so they have gone together and expect to have a very pleasant time as they are well equipped and can be quite independent of hotels.

MASONIC NOTICE

Unity Lodge, No. 368, F. and A. M., will confer a degree on Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock. All Masons cordially invited.

R. W. MASTERS, W. M.
A. W. TOWER.

Mrs. H. P. Goodwin of this city is leaving the Methodist Hospital in Los Angeles after a seven weeks' stay following an operation. She goes to Manhattan Beach to the home of Mrs. H. Lee Clotworthy, where she hopes to regain her strength. Mrs. Goodwin has a host of warm friends in this city and will speedily recover if their good wishes can bring it about.

Mrs. John McCollum, a former resident of Glendale and attendant on the Glendale Presbyterian Church, and who has been in ill health for a long time, recently underwent a serious operation at Seaside Hospital in Long Beach. Her friends here will be glad to know that she came through it nicely and strong hopes of her recovery are entertained by her physicians and nurses.

Miss Marie Paoli, of Carstairs, Province of Alberta, Canada, is a visitor at the home of her brother at 329 Milford street. He moved his family to Glendale from Burbank about a week ago and they expect to make their permanent home here. When asked if she suffered from the heat here, Miss Paoli declared it did not seem as extreme to her as some of the summer weather in her own home.

V. S. Gooch, who bought the old Van Vorce place, 467 Vine street, two or three years ago, has been slowly working over the old house ever since, doing all the work himself at odd moments. He has added two rooms, of outside shingle construction, has built on a Juliet balcony and cut out Cathedral windows and put in French doors, with stained glass setting. When completed it will have an ancient castle-like appearance and be quite a novelty.

W. C. T. U. MEETING

Next Friday afternoon at 2:30 the W. C. T. U. will meet at the home of Mrs. I. A. Ford, 215 North Adams street, instead of at the home of Mrs. J. N. McGillis as previously announced. The program consists of a birthday party given by the members of the Glendale L. T. L. in honor of Miss Gordon, who is the World's Secretary of the Loyal Temperance Legion. Mrs. Brooks will have charge. All children invited. A large attendance of members desired.

MISSIONARY DAY AT PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Tuesday was missionary day at the Glendale Presbyterian Church. At noon a very nice luncheon was served by members of the Woman's Missionary Society at which the guest of honor was Mrs. J. M. Saunders, whose husband has been pastor of a New Zealand Church for many years. She has many interesting things to tell of life in that far-away island and at the afternoon session of the society gave a most interesting and inspiring address.

In the evening a large audience gathered to hear the address promised by Rev. J. M. Saunders whose theme was "The Cross and Foreign Missions." Dr. Edmonds presided and conducted the preliminary devotional service. The speaker referred to the Apostle Paul as the great example of missionary endeavor who, when his life had been touched by Christ wanted to go out and carry his joy to others. For that reason the cross and missionary work are vitally connected, he contended, because no great evangelistic work can be performed until one has felt such power as did Paul in his own life. The address was followed with the closest attention and was felt to be most helpful.

SIGHING FOR PARIS

Dr. E. H. Willisford confesses to a feeling of homesickness for France and the wicked city of Paris last Monday when the victory celebration was held there on the anniversary of the fall of the Bastille and when two millions of people gave themselves to joy as only the French people can surrender to the carnival spirit. He was in Paris when President Wilson was welcomed there and says he will never forget what a wonderful tribute it was, coming as it did from all classes of the French population.

He says he would have rejoiced to see on Monday that great shrine of French patriotism to which fourteen splendid avenues lead, the Arc de Triomphe, erected by Napoleon, to celebrate another great victory. He first saw that arch in 1891 and from its top looked out over Paris. He saw it again for the last time just before he left Paris for the United States before it had been entirely divested of the covering erected to protect it from the attacks of bombing Huns.

In spite of the fact that France is not yet free from apprehensions concerning her ancient enemy, and at the very hour of her celebration was protesting against the withdrawal of the armies of the Allies from the German frontier, Mr. Willisford feels that the peace thus celebrated was a permanent peace which will loom larger and larger among world events as the years pass.

FIRE CHIEF ELEY RETIRED ON PENSION

Archie J. Eley, son of Rev. George Eley, 110 West Lomita avenue, who has been Los Angeles Fire Chief for a number of years past, was retired on a life pension Tuesday and Capt. R. J. Scott appointed to succeed him. Ex-Chief Eley is quite well known in Glendale.

TARGET PRACTICE AT FORT MACARTHUR

The dull reverberations off toward the south that were heard Tuesday by some Glendale residents did not announce a bombardment of our sea coast, but simply meant that target practice was going on at Fort MacArthur, San Pedro. The 12-inch mortars, throwing a shell of 1000 pounds weight—not straight out toward the target, but up in the air at a very sharp angle, coming out sufficiently to reach a target 5½ miles distant, were fired. Nine hits were recorded out of 12 shots fired, a most unusual score. On Monday, the 3-inch guns were fired forty times at 4000 yards, the objective being a movable target 24 feet long and 10 feet wide. Fourteen hits were scored.

CAN GOVERN BETTER OURSELVES

Peter Ferry, the contractor, says the arguments for annexation to Los Angeles do not appeal to him. Under the present conditions he thinks we can govern ourselves better and get more for Glendale than we could secure if annexed to the Angel City. A borough system which would leave us some control of this territory might be entertained, but the system which governs Los Angeles at present would afford no advantages.

RUSSIA'S BORDER STATES

By FRANK J. TAYLOR
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
NEW YORK, July 16.—"Let the border states decide what government they want by means of plebiscites." That is the proposal the bolsheviks make regarding the small nations surrounding soviet Russia. Contrary to their policy in force now of dictating from Moscow, the bolshevik foreign office recommends a decentralized government for the country. The chief bolsheviks hope for a confederation of communistic Russian states.

The bolsheviks are unwilling to withdraw the Red armies, however, until a plebiscite is taken in the border states. The Whites (anti-bolsheviks) cling to the same policy.

However, the bolsheviks are encouraging development of separate governments for Letland, Ukraina, and other border provinces under their control. Under the sponsorship of Moscow, which has sent out commissaires to guide the builders of new governments, Red Letland and Red Ukraina are becoming more bolshevik than the bolsheviks themselves.

The saddest situation is that of the border peoples half under the Reds and half under the Whites. Lithuania is a typical example. The Lithuanians claim they are a distinct nation, different entirely from the Russians. Many Lithuanians want to be independent. Still others think the little country should be attached to a great power. The majority of the Lithuanian people exploited by the old regime have no concern beyond bread and butter.

At present a large part of Lithuania is held by anti-bolshevik forces, most of whom are German and Polish. The Lithuanians have a small army which is sandwiched in between the German units. It is commanded by a Russian general from the Crimea.

A sort of half-organized half-representative government rules on the anti-bolshevik side of the line. Germans are financing the new country at a great profit. Food conditions are improving, with food from America. Conditions of living are filthy and almost unhuman. The Lithuanians claim their chief city is Wilna. Wilna has been but recently taken from the bolsheviks by the Poles, who claim that Wilna is Polish. They say they are going to keep the city.

The only educated people in Lithuania are the owners of the estates, who naturally are anti-bolshevik. They keep the peasants in a condition not very much advanced from benevolent feudalism.

Lithuania is only one of more than a dozen little states bordering on Russia proper. The adjacent powers are eager for them and the bolsheviks refuse to give up claim to them without plebiscites. North of Lithuania is Courland and Esthonia, both of them more or less under the influence of the Germans. These countries are almost as ignorant and poor in life as Lithuania. Both Esthonia and Courland are maintaining armies to fight the bolsheviks, with German help. The English fleet and marines are helping the Esthonians, who are now threatening Petrograd. Oddly, the English are in reality allied with German troops against the bolsheviks here.

The border provinces are harboring thousands of bourgeoisie from soviet Russia, refugees who fled from the bolsheviks. These people are actively propagandizing against the bolsheviks.

LA CRESCENTA

George Lewenstein, who recently married, has purchased an interest in a dairy in Asuza and will reside there.

Mrs. L. A. Potter and Miss Christine Potter have returned home from Thornycroft.

Mrs. F. A. Anderson is spending a brief vacation at Venice.

W. F. Brown is on his annual vacation and H. E. Bruce is running the power-house for the night shift.

A Business in Our Home Town

I honestly believe there is no way in which a man can be of greater public service than by running a legitimate and successful business. To do that you have got to love it. It is because Americans are chuch full of enthusiasm for their work that they are the greatest business men in the world.

AT BURBANK ON SATURDAY

At Burbank on Saturday, July 19th, we open for sale BIGGAR'S CENTRAL ACRES. This fine property lies at the corner of Central Avenue and Main Street—right in the center of things there. 40 acres cut into 36 homesites. Water, gas, electricity and telephone available, with share in pumping plant.

Big development has started in Burbank. That city is growing now as Glendale did in its early stages. And big money is going to be made there by those far sighted enough to buy now. Get a copy of our folder at the Evening News office.

Come out on Saturday whether you think of buying or not. A visit to your neighboring town will be interesting. Take Pacific Electric trains at Glendale station at 1:13, 1:42 or 1:53 p. m. We will meet you at Burbank terminus.

Did you buy a Thrift Stamp—or a War Savings Stamp this week? Don't neglect these little baby bonds. They will mature in 1923.

Louis Maranville and Joe Thomson are working for the Edison Company up beyond Bakersfield.

Mrs. S. B. Young reports her son, Earl, still in the naval service, bring back "the boys." Frank is in Asiatic waters and Claxton on his way to New York.

The Woman's Club afternoon picnic last Wednesday was a huge success. The August meeting will probably be of the same order.

Trahn Johnson will join the rest of our boys now with the Edison Company, next week.

SUNLAND

The Adams Canning Company opened their cannery Wednesday beginning work on the apricots with 15 women and 10 men at work. The work with the apricots will last about three weeks.

Miss Lillian Penfield of Los Angeles is the guest of Winifred Heron this week.

George Huse purchased, this week, a very valuable cow of Mr. Booth.

Miss Carrie Adams is doing the book-keeping in the cannery of the A. Adams Co.

Every desirable rent house in Sunland is occupied at the present time. There is a great demand for furnished houses. What we need is a modern apartment house, furnished. Let someone looking for a good investment see George Huse about some of the desirable sites he has listed for sale and build an apartment house.

John Grosvenor left for his new home in Hynes. He did not forget to leave his address to have the Glendale Sentinel-Progress sent to him.

Miss Lucy Marcus of Los Angeles visited with her father and friends in Sunland one day this week.

SALINAS, Cal., July 16.—George
S. Gould, Jr., has filed with the Board of Supervisors his resignation as assessor of Monterey county and it has been accepted, effective September 1st. Walter Tavernetti, Gould's chief deputy, has been appointed successor.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 16.—The first full day's convention business started here today in the National Convention of the Ancient Order of Hibernians. The convention endorsed the efforts of the Irish Women's Education Society. Among the National officers in attendance today are: Joseph McLaughlin, president; Right Rev. Michael J. Gallagher, chaplain; Patrick J. Canon, vice-president; Peter J. Doyle, National Canadian vice-president; Thomas J.
Mathews, secretary, and Michael J.
Delaney, treasurer. Scores of the most conspicuous leaders of the Irish race are among the delegates. The welcome of President de Valera of the Irish Republic who is expected tomorrow will be one of the largest celebrations to be held in the city, with thousands of visiting Hibernians from all parts of the country participating. Governor Stephens, Mayor Rolph, Judge Flood, Archbishop Hanna, Supervisors Gallagher and Welch and P. B. Mahoney are among the California notables who will deliver addresses of welcome to the visitors.
Kathrine O'Brennan, Irish patriot, will represent the women of Ireland
on the committee to welcome De Valera tomorrow. Miss O'Brennan has for the past three years waged a winning fight for the Irish cause throughout the United States. She is the sister-in-law of Eamonn Ceannt, commander of the South Dublin Volunteers, who was shot by the English following the Dublin Revolution of Easter, 1916.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 16.—Los Angeles Democrats are uniting with those of this city in an effort to obtain the Democratic National Convention for California, according to F.
Ray Groves, Los Angeles, secretary of the Democratic State Committee.
Groves, who is here making preparations for the reception of President Wilson in his League of Nations campaign, declares that Los Angeles has given up the fight for the convention and that Southern California Democrats are bending every effort to obtain the convention for San Francisco. Groves declares that National Chairman Cummings, on his recent tour of the west, discouraged any talk of Los Angeles getting the convention because of insufficient hotel facilities and the lack of an adequate meeting place.

SACRAMENTO, Cal., July 16.—
An invasion of field mice, traveling in large colonies, is threatening Butte county orchards. The mice attack the trees and gnaw the bark near the ground, killing them. Orchardists are organizing, under direction of Earle Mills, county horticultural commissioner, to fight the pests.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., July 16.—
Work on the new Goodyear tire plant and cotton factory here is expected to start soon. A site of 480 acres in the Vernon district has been obtained of which 80 acres will be used for the first units. The two plants to be built will represent $25,000,000.

THE YELLOW SERPENT

Some of the negroes who have returned from France were members of that division whose insignia is the coiled yellow serpent. A New York woman who saw three of them standing on the street was curious about the meaning of the emblem and asked the negroes. One of them was a sergeant, the others privates. The sergeant waved the others grandly back to prevent their answering. He had prepared the reply to that question.

"Lady, dey is two meanin's to dis heah emblem," he explained pom-pously; "de fust signification is dat
we occupied a dang'ous and impo-tant post called Snake Hill, and de second signification, lady, is dat we wuz p'ison to de Germans."

NOT BAD BUT SICK

A recent bequest to Harvard University provides $100,000 for the study and cure of criminals.

For years Turkey has been known as "The Sick Man of Europe." It was so bad, that it was a disease, a sore in the side of humanity. More and more this is being accepted as the true view of criminality. The bad are sick. Many of them can be cured by proper treatment of bodily defects.

It is a great philanthropy, this curing souls by curing bodies, and people who provide funds for it are true benefactors of society.—Riverside

INDIA HOARDING SILVER FROM U. S.

(By United Press)

LONDON. (By Mail).—India is responsible for the present high price of silver, according to British bullion experts. The habit of the Indian people of hoarding silver coins gives little prospect of amelioration of conditions in the silver market. To meet the shortage caused by Indian hoarders 350,000,000 U. S. A. silver dollars were melted down for conversion into Indian rupees.

"India has been the sink of the world for precious metals for generations," declared one of the directors of Samuel Montagu and Company, leading British dealers in silver.
"When gold supplies were cut off during the war, and importations of silver restricted to currency requirements, the native mind was impressed with the idea that silver was likely to become exceedingly precious."

"Accordingly the natives began to hoard their silver rupees. The effect of that policy among a population of 300 millions, accustomed to regard silver as the staff of their economic life, created a heavy demand for the metal. The demand was further intensified by the almost simultaneous opening of campaigns in Mesopotamia and East Africa, which meant the manufacture in India of large quantities of munitions, and an increase in the quantity of silver in currency to meet higher wages. Troops had also to be supplied with rupees in these theaters and in Egypt."

"All available sources of supply were drawn upon to meet the demand, but soon all ordinary stocks of silver ran dry. The United States government came to the rescue by withdrawing 350 million silver dollars from circulation and issuing silver certificates, but the situation has not been alleviated to any considerable extent."

hostess, gave a child study reading about "Billy Brad" which vastly entertained the parents familiar with the bewitching vagaries of kindergarten kids. A spring song in duet by Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Shank for which Mrs. LeRoy Bosserman furnished the piano accompaniment completed this portion of the evening's entertainment and then the tables were placed for play.

When scores were counted it was found that the high score prize winner for Bridge was Roscoe Puffer; Mrs. Charles Parker securing the ladies' prize for Bridge. The highest score in Five Hundred was made by Miss Gertrude Bennett, the gentlemen's prize going to Charles Parker.
Delicious refreshments of ice cream and home-made cake for which the hostess is famous were served at the close of play.

The guest list included: Mrs.
Callender and Miss Louise Callender,

YANKS WON IN THIS CONTEST

(By United Press)

PARIS. (By Mail).—Just who won the war is still a live question of debate, but there is no argument as to which nation's warriors came off best in matrimonial contests in France.
The Yanks won.

A typical example of how completely the American doughboys in France outclassed their British, Belgian and other rivals is furnished by the marriage bureau of La Rochelle, a small seaport down on the coast between Bordeaux and St. Nazaire.

The Americans started with a severe handicap. The other Allies had had three years and more to entice away the girls of La Rochelle before the doughboys had even learned to say "Bon jour."

But the figures tell best the story of ultimate triumph. A total of sixty-three girls of the seaport town married foreign soldiers during the course of the war. Twenty-three of them were won by Americans. Belgium came in second best, carrying off nineteen brides.

Other armies were represented in the following proportions: Italians, five; English, three; Swiss, three;
Russians, three; Spanish, two;
Danes, one; Poland, Greece, Cuba
and Turkey each scored one.

Throughout France the story of La Rochelle was repeated.
